

9:00	Registration opens, Trade Stands open, refreshments served
10:00	Welcome from morning chairman – Paul Faulkner
10.15	A message from our main sponsor - Bioline AgroScience Ltd Caroline Reid – Senior Technical Lead – North Europe Tuta: A Problem in British Tomatoes
10.40	LEAF – Circular Agriculture Caroline Drummond- CEO Linking Environment and Farming
11:10	AHDB Horticulture: Delivering for Growers Hayley Campbell-Gibbons – AHDB Board and Horticultural Sector Chair
11:40	Kantar – A Year in Retail for Tomatoes Joseph Shaw Roberts – Consumer Insight Director
12:10	Apprenticeship Schemes - STEM Gary Swayne – APS Group
12:40	Perennial Gardener’s Royal Benevolent Society – Helping Horticulturists In need since 1839 Kate Cooney – Corporate Partnership Manager (Kate will be available to answer questions during the lunch break)
12.45	Lunch, Networking and View Exhibits
14:15	Welcome back from afternoon chairman, Phil Pearson
14:20	Energy matters Jon Swain (NFU Energy)
14.30-16:30	Tomato Brown Rugose Fruit Virus (ToBRFV) An afternoon with guest speakers and a Panel Q&A session discussing all aspects of the new tomato virus ToBRFV. This session will include R&D, Policy and Practical guidance for growers. Covering all aspects of ToBRFV it will be an essential afternoon for anyone involved in tomato production, an opportunity for everyone to better understand this highly important pathogen.
16:30	Closing remarks – Phil Pearson
16.30	View Trade Stands
18.30	Meet in the Grange for Pre-dinner drinks
19.30	Tomato Conference Annual Dinner